

Mivule is the East African teak tree used as a village gathering place. In the shade of its long branches, people unite as equals to heal their hearts and find justice.

Bio

Tebalina kyakulya basulanjala gwe, gweleka banana tubayambe

"We've got to stand up for the children"

Established as a 4-piece in 2019, Mivule plays a unique blend of Reggae, Afrobeat, Dub and World Music. The Vancouver-based band has performed at Ignite the Arts Festival (Penticton, BC), Northwest Folklife Festival (Seattle, WA), and four consecutive years at the African Descent Festival (Vancouver, BC). Lead singer Brian Baroda draws on his experiences as a South Sudanese refugee to infuse the music with hopeful messages in English and East African languages. Mivule is currently producing their debut album with support from the Canada Council for the Arts.

Live Performance:

Ruka Live Studio Session

Media Links:

Photos and Logo

Brian

Sal

Matt

Jesiah

Mivule is:

- Brian Baroda - vocals, guitar, percussion
- Salvador Llanes - keyboard
- Matt Yard - bass
- Jesiah Yarish - drums

@MivuleMusic

www.mivule.ca

@mivulemusic